(1) FEKKAI MORE NIGHTTIME FOLLICLE-BOOSTING TREATMENT

This patented blend of niacin (vitamin B3), marine glycogen and caffeine improves the overall health of the scalp, while oxygenating and stimulating the follicles. The result? Healthier, thicker, glossier hair—and more of it!

(2) REDKEN EXTREME ANTI-SNAP This protein-rich "milk" is great for hair that has been overstyled; it targets damaged areas of the hair shaft, helping seal and refortify the cuticle.

Repeat after us, ladies: Stronger hair means less breakage, which equals longer locks!

(3) DR. HAUSCHKA NEEM HAIR LOTION This organic potion packs a double punch for hair growth: Chamomile soothes the scalp, while rosemary stimulates. And the massage method recommended for application not only feels heavenly, it also coaxes hair into super-growth mode. What's not to love?

(4) HAIRMAX LASERCOMB The LaserComb is the first FDA-approved hand-held laser device "for promotion of hair growth." Originally designed for men to combat hair loss (studies showed an increase in hair thickness in 93 percent of participants), women who use the tool report that their hair is thicker, longer, bouncier and shinier. Hey, they borrow our moisturizer, so call it even...
